

Adam El Din

President – Life Sciences

Vice President – Europe – All KCI Industries

Adam El Din serves as President – Life Sciences for Ken Clark International (KCI) from the firm’s Geneva office in Switzerland. He joined KCI in 2005.

Mr. El Din is responsible for business development with clients of KCI in Western Europe. His Industry focus is Life Sciences (pharmaceutical, medical, biological, diagnostic, consumer health and scientific products as well as manufacturing, research and laboratory services) and Medical and Health Care Services. In serving his clients, Mr. El Din often “teams” with KCI’s offices in North America, Europe, Asia Pacific, Latin America and Middle East/Africa. He also “teams” with KCI’s specialty practices when appropriate. As often as possible, KCI’s geographic and industry “expertise” is presented to clients.

Mr. El Din also serves as the Vice President – Europe – All Industries for KCI. In this role, Mr. El Din is responsible for business development with clients of KCI in Southern Switzerland, France, Italy, Nordic Countries and Spain who are in the Consumer; Industrial, Chemicals and Materials and Advanced Technology industries.

Prior to joining KCI, Mr. El Din spent more than 20 years in executive roles in the Life Sciences industries including 10 years with Pfizer Inc. His roles included heading global sales and marketing, clinical affairs and regulatory affairs, as well as management roles in new product development and quality assurance. Mr. El Din’s therapeutic experience includes cariology, urology, gynecology, gastroenterology and interventional radiology. El Din was a member of the AUA, AAGI and RAPS.

Mr. El Din studied medicine at Cairo University. He also holds an MBA from the United States.